Description	In the Matter of the District Court of the First Judicial District Judge: Susie Jensen Clerk: Della Armstrong Court Reporter: Phoebe Burns CR11-24-787 State v. JaMisha Nevarez
Date	9/5/2025	Location	9B-CRT1
Time	Speaker	Note
	Ct	Time scheduled for a number of cases. Nevarez present via Zoom, representing herself. Mr. Zemaitis via Zoom for the Bonner County Prosecutor's office.
10:58:51 AM	Ct	Now taking up the reconsideration of motion to terminate the criminal no contact order in CR11-24-787. Denied previous motion to terminate under Idaho Criminal Rule 46.2. Any additional argument?
10:59:32 AM	Nevarez	Speaks to efforts made by law enforcement to try and arrest and commit me. Do not know Andrakay, have never met her, all the information given to her was hearsay. Sheriff Stolley is working to correct this. All parties inflicted trauma on me. My legal name was not used during this whole process. Everything that could go wrong did. Sheriff says probation was not allowed to record me, struck her finger in my face, strip searched, should not have been ordered to do drug testing. Things got inflamed, there was no validity to any perceived threat. No one was shielding or helping me, all my cries for help were to people that were involved in the attempt to commit me. The cries in that audio were of a woman in distress, knowing that her brain was about to be destroyed. Immediately repented to God, recorded in the bathroom, city police coordination, threatened with warrant, had posted bond for the second time in two weeks. Act of self defense. Words were misinterpreted. They withheld the exculpatory evidence. Sheriff is upset that his probation officers acted this way and coordinated with the chief of police.
11:05:47 AM		Don't hate Andrakay, she is protecting Tevis Hull and her city officers. Both her police departments and the courthouse are under fire. Eleven falsified reports have been submitted with requested warrants. Attempting to destroy the global resolution. Not a threat to Andrakay. Her property borders my family property. Have an easement across her property to my family farm from the 1800s. I don't know her, there is a 15 year age gap. I don't know how she knows me. I deserve my life back. I can't get a job, I owned a
